BRENDA HOWLEY JOINS VHFA AS LEGAL COORDINATOR

BURLINGTON—Executive Director Sarah Carpenter announced Brenda Howley of South Burlington has joined Vermont Housing Finance Agency (VHFA) as Legal Coordinator.

Howley assists VHFA's General Counsel in performing legal functions for the Agency, including oversight of corporate records management, program and procedure review and closings of multifamily mortgage loans for construction, acquisition and rehabilitation, preservation, and ownership transfer involving multiple lenders, Low Income Housing Tax Credits, bond financings and other sources of funding.

Howley's legal experience goes back to the mid-1990s. Over the last six years, she's worked as a paralegal in Burlington — most recently with Little & Cicchetti PC, and, before that, Dinse Knapp & McAndrew PC.

The Vermont Legislature created VHFA in 1974 to finance and promote affordable housing opportunities for low- and moderate-income Vermonters. Since its inception, the Agency has helped approximately 27,000 Vermont households with affordable mortgages and financed the development of approximately 8,400 affordable rental units.
